Paul Harfleet’s ongoing Birds Can Fly project is an evolving body of work. More than 60 limited edition prints are available here in various sizes and arrive with a certificate of authenticity and are printed and dispatched by The Print Space London. Garments with the birds featured in designs are available here.

Most of the original drawings in the Birds Can Fly series are available for sale*. Each is a pen drawing on 25cm x 25cm on 350g/m² paper and are supplied uncoloured.

£400 unframed or £550 professionally framed, includes P&P. (Please note, Paul Harfleet retains all rights to use the digital version of the drawing in anyway he sees fit).

Paul Harfleet is able to accept specific commissions for a bird of your choice. Size is negotiable.

As a guide the Puffin commission (pictured) is pen and coloured pencil on A3 size paper and would be priced as below.

£500 unframed or £650 professionally framed includes P&P.

Get in touch with Paul to discuss the details of future commissions here. Time-scale of production and delivery will vary depending on artist’s schedule, commission complexity and framer availability.

*Originals of the Bare-Faced Go Away Bird, Seychelles Kestrel and Magpie are unavailable for sale.
